

Cairnbulg Point

Jig

Cairnbulg Point: a rocky headland near the village of Cairnbulg. My family took me to catch lobsters there as a child. When the local boats rounded it, coming home from the further fishing grounds, they would sound their horns and whistles and every household knew its own. It currently has a rusting trawler aground on it.

Cairnbulg Point