

The Old Sword's Reel

The Old Sword's Reel: another example of a tune which can be given a new lease of life by shuttling it between the genres, a thing pipers have done for centuries. I created this out of the favourite beginners' piobaireachd "Lament for the Old Sword".

Statue of William Wallace in Aberdeen, cast in bronze by W. Grant Stevenson, 1888