

Willie's in the Fishhoose

Jig

The image displays a musical score for a jig titled "Willie's in the Fishhoose". The score is written in treble clef with a 6/8 time signature. It consists of eight staves of music. The first staff begins with a treble clef and a 6/8 time signature. The music is composed of eighth and sixteenth notes, often beamed together in groups. There are repeat signs (double bar lines with dots) at the end of the second, fourth, sixth, and eighth staves. The notation includes various rhythmic patterns and melodic lines characteristic of a traditional jig.

Willie's in the Fishhoose: the writer spent a lot of time in such places when young heaving crans of herring about; although the physical activity was relentless, it gave much time for thought of which this little tune is a product.
