

The Carle's Rant

Strathspey

The Carle's Rant: I got this off the radio, but it was published in a pipe setting in David Glen's Highland Bagpipe Music. I think the version given here is slightly better than his. This is another old tune, published by the Gows and going back until at least the early years of the 19th century.

Breid and treacle are oatcakes and syrup