

The Fair Haired Lad

Jig

The musical score is written in treble clef with a 6/8 time signature. It consists of five staves of music. The first staff begins with a treble clef and a 6/8 time signature. The music is a jig, characterized by its rhythmic pattern. The score includes first and second endings, indicated by '1.' and '2.' above the staves. The piece concludes with a double bar line and repeat dots.

The Fair Haired Lad: I heard this in the later sixties and I do not know where it comes from; it might fit quite nicely in a medley.
