

MacDougall's March

MacDougall's March: I like the fluency of this tune which I heard a country dance band playing; I am not aware of other published settings. The MacDougalls occupied the lands of Dunolly at Oban from Mediaeval times, and pipers of the MacDougall name occur frequently in the records, amongst them the leading 19th century pipe makers Duncan and Gavin MacDougall.

Famous faces at the Argyllshire Gathering, including John MacDonald of Inverness, Robert Reid, Big Donald MacLean, J. B. Robertson of the Scots Guards and at the right rear wearing his trade-mark tea cosy bonnet, the writer and naturalist Seton Gordon