

TOO LONG IN THIS CONDITION. (Probably about 1612).

$\frac{1}{7}$ $\frac{13}{13}$	$\frac{2}{8}$ $\frac{14}{14}$	$\frac{3}{9}$	$\frac{4}{10}$	$\frac{5}{11}$ $\frac{15}{15}$	$\frac{6}{12}$ $\frac{16}{16}$
----------------------------------	----------------------------------	---------------	----------------	-----------------------------------	-----------------------------------

(1) Ground.

(2) Doubling.

(3) Var. I.

* "Donald Mc Cruimien lie pyper" was included (amongst others) in a remission, dated 13th. January, 1614, to Donald Mac Kay (afterwards Lord Reay) for the slaughter and wounding of certain coiners during arrest in May 1612. The Book of Mao Kay, p. 474.

Donald Mor Mac Crimmon.

Bar Nos.	$\frac{1}{7}$ 13	$\frac{2}{8}$ 14	$\frac{3}{9}$ 15	$\frac{4}{10}$ 16	$\frac{5}{11}$ 17	$\frac{6}{12}$ 18
----------	---------------------	---------------------	---------------------	----------------------	----------------------	----------------------

(4) Var. I. Doubling.

(5) Var. II. (Siubhal) Singling.* (6) Doubling (as printed).

(7) Creanludh Fosgailte.— Singling.* (8) Doubling. (as printed).

* For the Singling of these Variations substitute in the case of beats marked * the singling beats in the corresponding positions in the Ground or Singling of Var. I.