The Last Battle of Ypres.

March.

Piper T. Hermistoa.
11th R.S.

The second section of the page contains two staves of musical notation. Both staves begin with a treble clef and a 2/4 time signature. The music is written in a single melodic line, featuring eighth and sixteenth notes, with some beaming and slurs. The first staff contains approximately 16 measures, and the second staff contains approximately 16 measures.

The image displays seven staves of musical notation, likely for a pipe tune. Each staff begins with a treble clef. The notation consists of eighth and sixteenth notes, often grouped in pairs or fours. There are two first endings, labeled '1.' at the end of the first staff and '2.' at the start of the seventh staff. There are also two second endings, labeled '2.' at the end of the second staff and '2.' at the start of the seventh staff. The music is written in a single system across the seven staves.
